POCKLINGTON STORE CLOSING DOWN!!

I am very sad to say that we will be closing in Pocklington at the end of the month, as Poppy's will cease trading.

Our York shop will remain open under new ownership.

2011 and so far 2012 have been very difficult years for small retailers and we have been hit as well. Everyone has been feeling the pinch, and we have seen sales fall off to a point where we can no longer continue.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all our loyal customers and my staff, who I'm sure, are greatly saddened by this news.

If you have any Poppy club gift vouchers or loyalty cards to cash in you must do so before the end of the month.

Pocklington will close its doors for the last time on Saturday 31st March 2012.

THANK YOU AND GOODBYE!!!
